

RESTORATIVE PRACTICES TRAINING

For School Staff & Administrators

Facilitated by

JOHN LINNEY

National Trainer – Community Matters

October 15th and 16th

8:30 AM – 4:00 PM (Both days)

Shaw's Flat Site: 21125 Shaw's Flat School Rd, Sonora

Create a Culture Where Students and Staff Thrive

This two-day training offers hands-on strategies to address real challenges in schools. Through restorative practices and circle work, participants will learn to:

- Build stronger relationships with students and peers
- Reduce behavioral disruptions and disciplinary referrals
- Foster empathy, accountability, and community
- Promote a positive school climate and inclusive culture

Why Attend?

- Decrease student suspensions and increase engagement
- Improve classroom management and student voice
- Equip yourself with effective, restorative strategies
- Engage in interactive, real-world practice sessions

REGISTER TODAY
LIMITED AVAILABILITY

 COMMUNITY
MATTERS

Learn more about Restorative Practices